

A young child with brown hair, wearing a blue t-shirt and dark pants, is captured mid-air, performing a parkour move by jumping over a large, light-colored wooden box. The child's right arm is extended forward, and their left hand is on the box. The background is a solid red color, decorated with several large, shiny red balloons and black balloons with red streamers. Small red and white confetti is scattered throughout. At the bottom of the image, there are two black gift boxes with red ribbons. The text "You're Invited!" is written in a white, bold, sans-serif font with a black outline, positioned above the main title. The main title "PARKOUR PARTY" is written in a large, bold, sans-serif font, with "PARKOUR" in white and "PARTY" in blue, both with black outlines. The text is centered and flanked by horizontal white lines.
